

OPINION LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Tlaib's anti-Israel hostility: Letters to the Editor — Nov. 24, 2023

By Post readers

Published Nov. 23, 2023, 8:27 p.m. ET

Rashida Tlaib speaks during a news conference calling for a cease-fire in November.

AFP via Getty Images

The Issue: Rep. Rashida Tlaib's remarks criticizing Israel in the wake of the Oct. 7 Hamas attack.

The vote by Congress to censure Tlaib was correct, and had nothing to do with violating her right to exercise freedom of speech.

Words have consequences and wrongful statements incite violence. Tlaib crossed the line and rightfully deserved to be admonished.

Ronald G. Frank

West Orange, NJ